

Coyote Campfire Fall 2017

Name	Rob Riman
Organization/program you work with	White Pine Programs
Organization/program website	http://www.whitepineprograms.org/
Where are you located?	Cambridge Massachusetts United States
What is the name of your activity/skill	Linecraft
What age is this skill/activity appropriate for?	young kids (5-8) Preteen (9-12) teen adult
Any special materials needed to lead this activity?	line, rope, fiber, cordage + dimensional flexibility
Brief activity overview/description	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. start swinging a ~15' (5m) jump rope tied to a tree and invite/challenge everyone to pass through without touching the rope, individually at first, then as a group, maybe with jumping, double-dutch, either direction, etc.</li><li>2. stop swinging the rope and toss each person a piece of line (~1/4" x 6' 5mm x 2m is good). ask them to tie a knot, any knot and show it to you. then another. share them around (some may know none, others many), bogus knots are welcome (give them crazy names like hemlock half-tangle)</li><li>3. move into a more formal exchange of ways to break into the second and third dimensions (tying knots) per the need/s at hand: tarpitecture, lashings, marine applications, tying shoes, knot games/tricks, string figures, etc.</li><li>4. close with gratitude for friction ; )</li></ol>